In 2011, The Next 30 Years of China was published, once appearing, it received extensive attention at home and abroad. Except the English edition, publishing companies of Japan, Korea, and so on, also buy the copyright. Many domestic provinces and cities treat it as the required readings for cadre. The reform and opening up of China blaze a way through all manner of obstacles, surge high and sweep forward, and also the road is bumpy and full of constant swells. There are many great achievements in the sight with suspicion, but, there are still skeptical voices for the future. This may be why everyone focuses on China's Future.
