

I wrote a book a while ago, about my life as an abused child. I decided to write a book about the life lessons I learned from the abuse I survived. If I was anyone else the abuse would have driven me crazy, but somehow it didn't. People learn a lot in their lives from different things. Some have a near death experience; I've had a few of those. Some learn from their loving parents, I only had one of those. Some learn from everyday life. My lessons I learned from an abusive father. Abusive is a polite way of saying he beat my ass, all the time.
