

The Churches today have very little to offer, in my experience, than what the world has. Too much control in government is not the only place that Tyranny can reign. No Pope or Pastor is infallible, and God has given us the ability to hear from him directly. But that does not stop churches from wanting and trying to control people. Is that evil? Yes, I believe it is in a lot of cases. I like to call it Religious Correctness when referring to church matters, as compared to Political Correctness when referring to the Government. Jesus was killed by the government AND the church. We must know how to discern the truth.
