

Daddy see! My dad was a navy journalist and he always taught us to send in letters and try, try to write about the news. I have to tell everybody! How about a hundred letters to the Editor to earn a diploma in communication from an international missionary school in Communication! There they are: good citizens and good citizenship! The models are all around you! Every day your newspaper at your local library is the place for laughter and common sense and expressing your opinions and learning from others opinions! Opinions! Opinions! Ask friends and family to visit the public library, too. Then, type your ideas and send them to the editorial department of the local paper! Type, type, type, type! Good for you! Daddy see! My dad was a navy journalist and he always taught us to send in letters and to try, try to write about the news. Use this book for education, of the American way to voice your opinion as new citizens, political party members, students and teachers and families! Daddy I see, we need to be involved and polite to each other! This is a very nice way to celebrate our patriotism, and good citizenship in a democracy! We love our freedom of voice and thought and all the news that is fit and admired to print. Opinion, yes opinions for you and me!

Dear daddy, There's a poem by Philip Larkin I'd like to share with you (he wrote it back when people still read poems, so you might have heard.

Recent letters to The Bee supporting Devin Nunes share a common trait. They are long on hyperbole about his accomplishments and support.

This letter is in response to a recent letter regarding Daddy-Daughter dances, sponsored by many schools. I normally do not respond to letters.

Right up there with death and taxes, nothing is more predictable than change. In the case of politics, it is inevitable in every party. But never. The focus at university was no longer on grades and academic achievement but on work experience and extra-curricular activities. Suddenly everyone was. How disappointing to read that the father/daughter relationship can be the impetus for learning reason . The stereotype underlying this. One cold, rainy January morning in , my family moved from Bellwood to Wicksburg. Father and my brother Henry walked the entire journey. (AP Photo/Marvel).
