

Pallen knew when she fired the three shots in the desert to save the lives of Graham Pinchot and his family, it might well end her own. Desert Rider, a woman's novel with lesbian content, is an unconventional story of a changing west and the strength of the women who were a part of it. Be it the overt strength of Pallen or the strength of necessity of a widowed mother of four or the subtle dominance of the village matriarch. Throw in a touch of supernatural and superstition, add a forbidden romance and finish it off with people as rugged as the climate for a unique adventure into the west.
