

Questo volume esamina la realtà linguistica della Valle del Mercure, area geografica di confine tra Basilicata e Calabria. Elemento portante della ricerca, che introduce nuove impostazioni e nuovi parametri sociolinguistici, è l'interpretazione della linguistica di contatto come chiave del cambiamento di variazione. Avviando una dialettologia politopica e comparativa attenta ad analizzare località già appartenenti all'Area Lausberg, lo studio permette di giungere anche a una proposta complessiva riguardante il quadro dialettologico dell'intera Basilicata, da considerare come una regione «costituita da microaree alternate ad isole linguistiche e/o colonie linguistiche che si estendono a macchia di leopardo».
