

16-year-old Kelsey thinks her new house far away from Tulsa is the perfect place to escape her past—until she meets Jay, the boy who used to live there. After a series of mysterious break-ins at the house, Kelsey discovers the culprit is Jay, but before she can confront him, Jay inadvertently sets in motion a series of events that leave Kelsey and her family devastated and Jay winds up in juvie. Desperate to fix things, Kelsey confronts him only to discover Jay—™s not the delinquent she expects, but a boy with a past more messed up than hers. Against her better judgment, the two of them form an unlikely friendship she keeps secret from everyone. Then Jay asks for a favor she didn—™t see coming — one that leaves Kelsey torn between her growing loyalty to Jay and throwing away the new future she worked so hard to build.
