Excerpt: ... judged against him, or if unable to give such security, will make oath or bring two credible witnesses to his inability.--Reg. 11, 1816, Sect. 12.--p. 269. 642. The Superintendent receiving the petition of appeal, will forward it, with a copy of the decision or order received, to the Sudder Court.--Reg. 11, 1816, Sect. 13.--p. 269. 643. The Sudder Court on admitting the appeal, will require by precept a record of all the proceedings, and call upon the respondents to answer the appeal by a certain date, in person or by akeel.--Reg. 11, 1816, Sect. 14, Cl. I.--p. 270. 644. The Superintendent will conform to such precept; and whenever it cannot be carried into execution by the date prescribed, will certify the same to the Sudder Court with a notice of the period within which a further return will be made.--Reg. 11, 1816, Sect. 14, Cl. 2.--p. 270. 645. Appellants and respondents are at liberty to conduct their own appeals, or to appoint vakeels, or to forward their pleadings through the Superintendent, who in such latter case will communicate to them all orders of the Sadder.--Reg. II, 1816, Sect. 15.--p. 270. 646. Whenever the Sudder may deem the trial not investigated, and the evidence taken in the case insufficient, the cause may be returned for further trial and judgment, to the Superintendent, or further evidence may be required to be taken and forwarded to the Court.--Reg. 11, 1816, Sect. 16.-/). 270. 647. 648. The rules and principles laid down for the trial and decision of suits by the Superintendent, are applicable to the trial and decision of appeals by the Sudder.--Reg. 11, 1816, Sect. 17 and 18.--p. 270. 649. Decrees involving a transfer or change in the possession of property, are never to be carried into execution until the period for appeal shall...
