

This is first of a series of letters under the heading Letters to the CIO. The letters are critical and intellectual analysis and reconstruction of perceptions into powerful conceptual ideas in the IT industry. The letters are written in a storytelling format as if the CIO is instructed on core issues, which plague IT. These are the words of a senior Enterprise Architect, which helps CIO or anyone in the office of the CIO resolve and rediscover information ecology through new and varied sets of prisms of reason.
