

Genre-based text-led collections reflecting the emphasis on how language is used and what effects it achieves. Rich and varied design encouraging students to read across the wide range of materials required at KS3 (S1/S2). Carefully selected extracts (literary and non-literary, pre and post 1914, familiar and more unusual) accompanied by examples of the key language skills. Choice of texts informed by and awareness of their appeal to boys as well as girls in order to meet concerns about raising standards. Built in cross-referencing on a thematic and linguistic basis to highlight links and facilitate mini-projects. Series strategy underpinned by networks (concept maps) as an aid to organise information and ideas in an effective and memorable way.
