To those of 60 years 3000 livres. of 65 years.... 3600 of 70 years.... 4000 The salaries of consuls were regulated by an arret, of the council of November 27, 1779: they were paid quarterly. Of the Dress or Uniform of the Consuls. The uniform of the consuls general, consuls, vice-consuls and Meve vice-consuls, consisted of an embroidered royal blue colored coat, lined with scarlet serge, and vest and small clothes of the latter color; with copper gilt buttons bearing the kings arms. Those who had a commission in the military service, Were permitted to wear the epaulettes of their rank. No other subject of his majesty could wear a blue embroidered coat, or a blue coat with a red vest. The drogmaans had the choice of the oriental or the French dress. The latter was composed of a coat of a sky-blue Its lining, and the vest and small clothes, were of the color of chamois leather. The agents of the consul were not permitted to wear a uniform. Of Consular Dues or Fees. In the origin of consular establishments, the duties on the entry and departure of vessels were paid, by the consul, to the privileged company of merchants, from whom he received a regular salary. The consulates of the ports of the Levan...
