

Have you ever been secretly sickened by the sugary syrupy prose and goody-two-shoes stuff you have read to children? Has it ever gotten old? Real old? Did you ever wonder what would happen if it all turned out bad instead? Real bad. Really really bad. Hmmm! How about a collection of poems that strike at all the hang-ups and insecurities we shared as kids? Then add in a dose of reality, from drunkenness to thievery, and a serving of bad behaviors galore. Take a poetic journey way beyond Go the Fk to Sleep by Adam Mansbach. Here are a few of the unforgettable poems: Teddy Bear No More Short and moving tale of a teddy bears demise. Pops is a Criminal Poignant poem that tells it like it is. Youre Not so Special at All A warning for the next generation! Joeys Dead The danger of sniffing glue is graphically explored. Fatso This poem about being overweight is simply as painful as it sounds. Where Did our Little Angel Learn to F*cking Swear? The question on every parents mind, with an equally obvious answer. Closet If you werent scared of your closet before... Floss. Brush. Die. An easy to read poem that brings the danger of Fluoride front and center. Bully Time Old school ways for new days... Run with Scissors Who will ever forget this practical advice? "Laughed so hard that I forgot for a moment how twisted Jones is! And yet, I loved every bad moment!" "Deliciously evil and so incredibly politically incorrect. Anti-matter for the prissy prudish straight-laced set. What's there not to love?" "I haven't read this book but I am outraged that this nasty stuff has fans. I mean really, what is wrong with you people?" "Totally different. Grossly inappropriate. Totally engrossing. Funny as hell! Well done Jones." Well! for all my fellow commiserants! Here, for your mature adult consumption, and DEFINITELY NOT FOR CHILDREN, is my latest collection of irreverent, sophomoric, politically incorrect, harsh, horribly wicked, tasteless, mean, cruel, uncaring, admittedly twisted, and simply vile poetic filth. Hope you enjoy my parody! Ira Jacob jones
