

I was doing well, I was keeping my secret no one knew that there was something different about me. I was fitting in quite well with the help of a step brother. Then one drunken night walking home from a party stopping at the most haunted house in the village changed everything. Life just got more interesting check. Friends screamed, blood was drawn and an attraction was formed. My secret was out. Things changed if they are for the better I will have to wait and see. A short story
