

(This book is with free audio book, and also readable on iPad and tablets.) Dong Yong, a people of Han Dynasty (202BC ~ 220), lost her mother in his early years. Unfortunately, his father passed away after several years of hard work. Dong Yong wept beside his father for several days. He knelt down on a roadside in the hope that those kind-hearted can help him bury his father. He would work for the benefactor after keeping vigil beside the coffin for three years as an exchange.
