

Combining explosive suspense and thriller with sensual passion, the author turns up the heat in the Native American tale, available for the first time in hard copy, about a female funeral director and the great love, loss, and strength to survive, and intentions to try and correct the mistakes made by others who have disregarded the sacred indigenous Native American people's beliefs. The Funeral Home is based on the life experience of a Native American funeral director. Most experiences have been exaggerated, added, and changed for the reader's enjoyment. This is a fiction story that expresses the importance of the sacred grounds of the indigenous Native Americans' ancestry.
