

Oppressed, dank, shabby and miserable. No, not Binghamton, New York, but the Land of Id. A one-horse kingdom ruled by a wretched, pint-sized tyrannical despot. This is a collection of Brant Parker and Johnny Harts award-winning newspaper comic strip, Wizard of Id, featuring a wise-cracking wizard, a rotten ruler, a drunken has-been jester, a cowardly knight and all the other Id-iots. If this doesn't make you laugh, you're better off in Binghamton. For the very first time, a compilation of all of the daily and Sunday strips from 1971, a complete year that helped to make Brant Parker and Johnny Hart one of the world's best-loved creative teams, and make the Wizard of Id one of the most popular cartoons of all time.
