

Totally Necessary Men is an off-the-wall comedy about a shy, under-achieving office worker whose life is thrown into chaos with the unexpected arrival of his meddlesome, aging aunt at his modest apartment. Other arrivals following in quick succession include the aunts irascible husband, a gone-but-not-forgotten girlfriend and her insanely jealous partner, and a scheming co-worker whose interests encompass not only the office but also the bedroom. The comedy features slapstick and verbal acrobatics that inflame circumstances, engulfing a hapless man-child who finds his life reduced to baffling pandemonium.
